DREAMING OF

A NEW WORLD

An independent activist, entrepreneur, and an educator who dedicated himself to life (夢堂) Han Hang-Gil sensed the right mind, and the right ideas. Sosa Institute of Technology, a predecessor of Bucheon University, was established based on the "Sense of Consciousness," which emphasizes correct wording. Han Hang-Gil was a leader of the March 1st independence movement of 1919. He led the street marches and was arrested and detained in Seodaemun Prison. While living in prison, there was no change in his determination to fight for independence. The issue "Mongdang (夢堂)" means that it represents a dream of a new world. In this way despite the tough realities faced by the Bucheon Global Language Center, inspired by the spirit of the dream-raising Mongdang (夢堂), it has opened the way for students to fly to the new world.

Bucheon University Founder
Mongdang Han Hang-Gil (1897-1979)
