02 Admission Procedure

03 Arrival and Airport Information

- Airport information will be provided separately after visa issuance.
- Airport pickup service will be provided if you arrive during the announced pickup period.
- It takes approximately 3 hours from Incheon Airport to Sunmoon University, so it is recommended to book a flight that arrives at Incheon Airport before 4:00 PM.
- After purchasing your flight ticket, you must send your name (in English), gender, departure date and time, departure location, arrival date and time, and flight number to the Korean Language Institute.

04 Visa Information

- Students who wish to enroll in the regular program must apply for a general study visa (D-4-1). The required documents for visa application may vary depending on the country, so it is recommended to check with the nearest Korean embassy or consulate in your area in advance.
- The D-4-1 visa is valid for 6 months and can be extended for up to 2 years at the Korean Immigration Office. After preparing the necessary documents (such as the admission letter, guarantor's letter, proof of financial support, etc.), students must apply at the nearest Korean embassy or consulate. The application will undergo review before the visa is issued. The process takes approximately 1 month, so students wishing to obtain a D-4-1 visa should begin the procedure at least 2 months before the start of the semester.

General Guidelines

01 Selection Process

1. Candidates will be selected based on their academic performance, ranked within each recruitment unit.
2. Failure to attend the interview will result in disqualification.
3. Applicants lacking demonstrable academic aptitude may be disqualified, regardless of the number of positions available.
4. Applicants holding dual citizenship must apply using their Korean nationality.
5. All communications regarding the selection process will be exclusively through the university's admissions website; individual notifications will not be issued.

02 Candidates' Instructions

1. Applicants are restricted to applying to a maximum of two departments or majors.
2. For applications submitted by mail, all documents must reach the university by 17:00 on the application deadline.
3. Applications that fail to arrive by the deadline due to postal mishaps or other reasons will not be accepted.
4. Submitted documents will not be returned.
5. Admission will be revoked if it is discovered that falsified documents were submitted or if admission was obtained through fraudulent means.
6. On the day of the exam, candidates must bring their admission ticket along with their resident registration card or passport.
7. Even after admission, candidates found to be ineligible (due to insufficient academic qualifications, document forgery, inability to obtain a visa, etc.) will have their admission canceled.
8. Special cases will be handled as per the regulations set by the University's Admissions Management Committee.
9. The guidelines are primarily in Korean, and in cases where translations into other languages may cause discrepancies in meaning, the Korean recruitment guidelines will prevail.

03 Guidelines for Multiple Applications

1. Special admissions for overseas Koreans and foreigners are considered under the rolling admissions system, allowing applicants to apply to up to six universities.
2. (*However, there are no restrictions on multiple applications for foreign admissions and industrial universities or colleges if both parents are foreigners.)
3. Within the rolling admissions system, applicants can apply to multiple universities offering special admissions for overseas Koreans and foreigners.
4. Applicants are permitted to apply to both regular admissions and special admissions for overseas Koreans and foreigners within the rolling admissions system.
5. Successful applicants in the rolling admissions system cannot apply for regular admissions or additional admissions.
6. Any violation of these guidelines will result in the cancellation of admission to all universities where the applicant has been accepted.
