

KOREAN LANGUAGE FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES

The language training program that ensures your success in Korea and admission to the Korean-medium undergraduate degree courses at Kyungdong University Global!

We lead the world with new traditions!

Program Description

The Korean Language for Academic Purposes (KAP) program is intended to prepare international students for admission to the Korean-medium undergraduate courses at KDU Global as well as daily communications and interactions during their stay in Korea. The students learn the essential Korean language skills to achieve a minimum of TOPIK Level 3 as well as the cultural and social norms and values necessary to study and reside in the country.

The KAP program is for students who demonstrate commitment to learn and improve their Korean language skills prior to commencing their degree courses. Those who successfully complete the program are eligible for exclusive and extended scholarships at their admission to the KDU Global undergraduate courses. The program lasts from six months to two years for each batch of admission and the applications to KAP are accepted all year round.
