7. Instructions for Applicants

- 1) Exceptions for ‘Applicants who completed all years of education overseas’
 - Academic System Discrepancy: If an applicant has completed more than 12 years of elementary and secondary education across two or more countries, a shortage of up to one semester (6 months) in the total period of attendance may be accepted if it was caused by differences in the academic systems of the respective countries.
 - Skipping Grades/Early Graduation: A shortage in the 12-year period caused by skipping a grade (excluding skips during transfer) or early graduation based on the educational laws of the respective country may be recognized.

- 2) Definition of Foreigner : An individual who does not hold Korean citizenship. Dual citizens holding Korean nationality are not eligible for international student status.
- 3) Periods of study resulting from repeating the same grade or semester will not be recognized towards the total period of attendance.
- 4) For international students, academic credentials obtained through qualification exams (GED), homeschooling, cyber/online learning, or language institutes are not recognized.
- 5) Applicants must adhere to all policies established by the university regarding the admission process.
- 6) Any disadvantage arising from non-submission, errors, omissions, or illegibility of documents is the sole responsibility of the applicant.
- 7) Applicants found to have provided false information, forged or altered documents, or engaged in any misconduct will be disqualified regardless of their scores. Admission will be revoked even after enrollment.
- 8) Modification of the application form or cancellation of the application is not possible once the submission is complete.
- 9) The university may request additional documents to verify the eligibility or authenticity of the applicant's qualifications.
- 10) The university does not provide individual notifications for all guidelines in this prospectus. Applicants are responsible for being fully aware of the contents; any disadvantage from ignorance is the applicant's responsibility.
- 11) Any disadvantage resulting from a loss of contact during the admission period is the applicant's responsibility.
- 12) Important announcements and admission results will be notified individually during the evaluation period.
- 13) Admission or enrollment may be cancelled or revoked if a student visa (D-2) is denied by the immigration authorities.
- 14) For overseas tuition transfers, any loss due to exchange rate fluctuations is the applicant's responsibility (tuition must be paid in KRW). If the refund amount from overpayment is less than the bank transfer fee, it will not be refunded.
- 15) Matters not specified in this guide will be governed by the guidelines of the Ministry of Education and Ministry of Justice, and the deliberations of the Yuhan University International Cooperation Committee and the Admissions Management Committee.
- 16) All submitted documents will not be returned under any circumstances.
