International Programs

Exchange and Visiting Student Program

International students can take courses at Kyung Hee University either in Korean or English for up to one academic year. Only international students from the partner institutions are eligible for our exchange program with their tuition at Kyung Hee University waived under the mutual bilateral agreements. Students who are not from the partner institutions can still take courses at Kyung Hee University through our visiting student program, although they will be responsible for their tuition to Kyung Hee University. The visiting students must also follow their home institution's regulations regarding tuition payment for the time they are here.

Global Collaborative Program

This program is offered every summer to provide courses taught by world-renowned scholars and professionals from international organizations, along with a variety of cultural programs. The program is offered in collaboration with participating universities and institutions including the University of Pennsylvania, University of Oxford, Peking University, the UN Department of Economics and Social Affairs (DESA), and the Conference of NGOs in Consultative Relationship with the United Nations (CoNGO).

Student Interview

Murakami Kanon, Japan

Undergraduate Student

“KHU has many classes for international students, so I was able to take classes without any burden even though I was not good at Korean at first. There are various programs for international students such as buddy programs and Korean Helpers, so I can make friends at KHU and enjoy cultural experiences while studying abroad.”

UN/INGO Internship Program

The Global Academy for Future Civilizations runs the UN/ INGO Internship Program to create a civilization of peace and co-existence as well as to cultivate global leaders for the 21st century. The program places students in internships that help them better understand global problems and enhance their education through hands-on work and research at international organizations. The program is based on cooperative relationships between Kyung Hee University and diverse international organizations including the UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA), the UN Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP), the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), World Alliance of Citizen Participation (CVICUS), and the Conference of NGOs in Consultative Relationship with the United Nations (CoNGO).

Korean Language Program

Seoul Campus

The Institute of International Education (IIE) is a specialized language-teaching institute. In 1993, IIE first opened its Korean language program and was selected by the government as an official institute for teaching Korean to international students. Every year, over 6,000 students from more than 100 countries attend IIE. In addition to providing high-quality Korean language courses, the institute also offers special programs on culture and history of Korea, and opportunities to meet and make friends with Korean students.

Global Campus

Korean Language Program

Institute of Language Education

Institute of Language Education (ILE) is a specialized language-teaching institute located in Global Campus. The ILE offers Korean language courses and cultural experience programs for undergraduate students and international students preparing to attend a Korean university, as well as those with other academic or personal language goals. In addition to the regular Korean language program, the ILE offers both a daytime and evening Short-Term Program focusing on practical language skills for everyday life in Korea.

Student Interview

Schwartz Julian, Germany

2021 Exchange Student

"Through the I.F.C.C. I got to know people from diverse cultures and made amazing experiences. I liked going to Busan and Jeju with my I.F.C.C. buddy and other exchange students."

International Student Support Programs

The Office of International Affairs organizes a wide range of cultural events and activities to foster friendship and social networking opportunities for international students. Through participating in cultural programs such as Korean cooking classes, temple stays, and field trips, students gain a greater understanding of Korean culture, lifestyle, and history.

Seoul Campus

Buddy Program for Exchange students

International Friendship & Culture Club (I.F.C.C.)

I.F.C.C. brings together Korean students and international students to build friendship and foster cultural exchanges. Through participating in the programs and activities of the I.F.C.C., students can build an international network while gaining global experiences and learning about each other's cultures. Major activities include regular meetings, welcome parties, field trips, and get-togethers to foster mutual understanding.

Buddy Programs for Full-Time International Students

The Division of International Students and Scholar Services organizes the cultural exchange "Buddy Program" each semester. The purpose is to provide experiences in Korea for international students and a chance for Korean and international students to learn from each other through cross-cultural exchange. Both Korean and international students are allowed to participate in this program.

Student Interview

Agdid Fatima Ezzahra, Morocco

2020-2021 Exchange Student

"KHU offers a warm and friendly environment that can make any exchange student feel at home. It's a beautiful place to call home away from home."

Global Campus

Cultural Experience Program for Exchange students

KHUddy (KHU+Buddy)

KHUddy is a cultural exchange organization affiliated with the Office of International Affairs at the Global Campus. KHUddy was first established in 2014 and has been actively implementing different cultural events for international students ever since. Their main activities include a welcoming party each semester, a traditional Korean game night, field trips to historic places, and a farewell party at the end of the semester. KHUddy has provided many opportunities for international students as well as Korean students to interact with each other and share their cultures.

Career Development Program

Career Development Programs have been designed to help international students find domestic and overseas employment. Those programs include lectures on employment, image making, resume clinics, mock interviews, information sessions with employed KHU graduates, foreign language contests, and more.

Student Interview

Hao Xin, China
Master Student

"KHU runs exchange programs with many foreign universities, so I came to KHU as an exchange student in 2017. Since then, I fell in love with KHU. So, when I had to choose graduate school, I decided to come back to KHU. KHU is famous for its beautiful scenery and convenient facilities for every student. My life in KHU is really fun and meaningful now."
